

Merseyside Police website information on parking on pavements:

Merseyside Police website information on parking on pavements:

Can I park on the pavement?

It is an offence to drive onto a pavement and an offence to cause obstruction to other road users, including pedestrians. Vehicles causing obstruction may be issued with a fixed penalty notice and in some cases removed at the owner's expense.

Drivers are asked to have regard to pedestrians, particularly pram and wheelchair users and those who are disabled and partially sighted when parking their vehicles

Merseyside Police website information on parking on pavements:

Can I park on the pavement?

It is an offence to drive onto a pavement and an offence to cause obstruction to other road users, including pedestrians. Vehicles causing obstruction may be issued with a fixed penalty notice and in some cases removed at the owner's expense.

Drivers are asked to have regard to pedestrians, particularly pram and wheelchair users and those who are disabled and partially sighted when parking their vehicles

Merseyside Police website information on parking on pavements:

The screenshot shows the Merseyside Police website. The header includes the Merseyside Police logo and the text 'fighting crime protecting communities'. Below the header is a navigation bar with links: Home, About Us, Your Area, News, Protecting You, Ask Us, Join Us, and Contact Us. The main content area features a 'Frequently Asked Questions' section. A black circle highlights the question 'Can I park on the pavement?' and its answer. The answer states: 'It is an offence to drive onto a pavement and an offence to cause obstruction to other road users, including pedestrians. Vehicles causing obstruction may be issued with a fixed penalty notice and in some cases removed at the owner's expense. Drivers are asked to have regard to pedestrians, particularly pram and wheelchair users and those who are disabled and partially sighted when parking their vehicles'. The footer includes the text 'In an emergency always dial 999. For everything else, dial 101 | Privacy & Terms of Use | Accessibility | Site by PEVM'.